New York, NY

In the comfort of your workspace....
Wherever your are...
Your town, your state/province, your country

Notice to Government Employees

IBM conducts marketing presentations, executive briefings, product exhibitions, seminars and other sessions to familiarize customers with IBM solutions to information processing problems. In accordance with established IBM practices, these sessions are provided at no charge.

Some government agencies permit acceptance of this training by employees; other agencies may not. You should ascertain whether your agency's standards of conduct regulations permit you to attend this education or training session, as it is not IBM's intent or desire that either you, your organization, or IBM violate any statutes or regulations.

“Only you can determine if you should be here.”

Notice to Government Employees...

Under IBM's established business practices, the fair market value for nonbillable IBM education or training is zero, as it is normally provided to commercial customers, government customers, and potential customers on a no-charge basis.

The offer of IBM training or education made in conjunction with this notice is void where prohibited by federal, state, or local government stature or regulation.

The screenshot shows the landing page for the Enterprise Knights of IBM Z video library. At the top, the title "Enterprise Knights of IBM Z" is displayed in blue, with a stylized knight chess piece icon to the right. Below the title is the tagline "Providing educational insights to the security & integrity of our platform." The main content area features a video player showing a man, Bryan Childs, in a dark shirt, with a "POUGHKEEPSIE" sign in the background. To the right of the video player are two call-to-action buttons: "Start exploring the Enterprise Knights of IBM Z video library." and "Find out about the knights behind the videos." At the bottom of the page, there is a small disclaimer: "Thanks to @ibmpartners TV for hosting our video curriculum. See a variety of other cool topics here: https://developer.ibm.com/t/topic/".

LCST/e System z Platform Evaluation Test
The Final Verification

z/OS | CICS | IMS | DB2 | WebSphere MQ |
WebSphere Application Server | Tivoli | InfoSphere

We are a team of system programmers and testers that run a Parallel Sysplex on which we perform the final verification of a z/OS release and System z hardware and System Storage before they become generally available to clients. We gather our experiences and recommendations and document them here in our blog.

The banner features a row of six server racks of varying heights and colors (black and grey) on the right side.
