Important information for Licensed Software, Network and Services customers

Effective July 1, 2011, Sterling Commerce customer numbers will be replaced with IBM customer numbers (ICNs). Please look for a welcome letter in the next few weeks with your IBM customer number.

All purchase documentation, such as invoices, will be sent to the primary contact listed in your IBM profile associated with your IBM customer number unless specified otherwise in your order.

The vendor name will change from Sterling Commerce to the applicable local/regional IBM operation covering your location.

If applicable you will need to re-issue Tax Exemption Certificates from your company to IBM, please submit your VAT or Tax Exemption Certificate with your first order.

Sterling Commerce support may be accessed through existing channels until the migration of support to IBM systems is complete. Continue to use your Sterling Commerce customer number and Sterling Commerce support ID for access until further notice.

If the renewal date for your current support is before July 1, 2011, you should have received a quote from your Sterling Commerce Software subscription and support renewal representative, and you should proceed with confirming your renewal before June 30th, 2011, to ensure that there are no disruptions in service. Any renewals not confirmed by that date will be re-quoted using IBM's terms and conditions.

If your renewal is due in July August or September, you should have received a quote from your Sterling Commerce Software subscription and support renewal representative. You will have the option to renew before June 30th with Sterling Commerce and make the payment when the renewal is due.

Accounts Payable and Purchasing

Effective July 1, 2011, Sterling Commerce processes will migrate to IBM. This will create a common process for you to acquire software products and services from IBM.

The quotes and invoices you receive may change in format after July 1, 2011, and they will be issued from an IBM location as appropriate. All outstanding quotes expire on June 30, 2011 unless stated otherwise in the quote. This may affect the remit-to address, and in certain countries, the transaction currency that you are using today. Please check the following items on your internal vendor records.

Important actions for Sterling Commerce customers

Table of changes for Accounts Payable and Purchasing

What is changing	Description
Vendor name	Vendor name will change from Sterling Commerce to the applicable local/regional IBM operation covering your location (the term "Vendor" below represents the IBM operation).
Vendor remit-to addresses	Vendor remit-to addresses for checks, wire transfers and overnight payments will change for all new business after July 1, 2011. The new details will appear on your invoices issued from IBM after that date.
Vendor standard payment terms	In most countries, Vendor standard payment terms of "due upon receipt" may be applicable. You can find this information on either your invoice or quote.

Passport Advantage

As a customer of IBM, you will begin to see references to Passport Advantage and Passport Advantage Express.

Passport Advantage and Passport Advantage Express are simple, comprehensive IBM offerings for new software licenses and Software Subscription and Support (product upgrades and technical support) under a single, common set of agreements, processes and tools.

Passport Advantage Online Enrollment

This process enables you to become a Passport Advantage customer and take advantage of volume pricing. Enrollment forms should be completed by both new customers enrolling in Passport Advantage, and current customers enrolling new sites under their existing Passport Advantage agreement.

Prior to enrolling in Passport Advantage, you must sign in using your IBM registration user ID.

As an example, Passport Advantage Online is a web tool that helps manage your licensed software, buy new licenses, renew subscriptions, download entitled software, and more.

Most of the current IBM Sterling Commerce products and support are available under the IBM Passport Advantage program.

Recent Passport Advantage Announcements

In April IBM announced the availability of some Sterling Commerce products in Passport Advantage. Please see the following announcement letters for more information. You will see future communications as additional Sterling Commerce products are added to IBM Passport Advantage.

IBM WebSphere Commerce V7.0 Feature Pack 3.0

IBM Sterling Business Integration Suite

IBM Sterling Business Integration Suite products for the z/OS platform

In future communications, you will receive more detailed information on the latest Sterling Commerce products and support integrated into this program.

Software Support

The Sterling Commerce support team will continue to focus on delivering customer satisfaction without compromise.

Existing Sterling Commerce support offerings and systems will continue to be offered and used after July 1, 2011.

As we work to integrate Sterling Commerce and IBM support, we will offer Sterling Commerce customers expanded capabilities through the existing IBM support infrastructure.

For the most current information on IBM Sterling Commerce technical support visit: <http://www-01.ibm.com/software/commerce/support/>

What does not change on July 1, 2011

- Support is provided per your existing Sterling Commerce support agreements.
- Sterling Commerce support is accessed through existing channels. Continue to use your Sterling Commerce customer number and Sterling Commerce support ID for access until further notice.
- Sterling Commerce support cases continue to be logged on the Sterling Commerce Technical Support web site.
- Sterling Commerce patches continue to be available on the Sterling Commerce Technical Support web site.

Note: As we complete the migration to IBM systems, the above items will be changing and you will be notified of the changes through future communications.

Software Subscription and Support Renewals

Sterling Commerce Software Maintenance and Renewals for licensed software products will be integrated into the IBM Software Subscription and Support Renewals process in a phased approach.

Extension of your commitment period for Sterling Collaboration Network Managed Services or SaaS offerings will be in a future communication.

Your Software Subscription and Support renewal is determined by the date your support contract expires.

The following table outlines the key dates associated with the transition to the IBM Software Subscription and Support process.

Table of renewal dates and actions

Renewal date	What will happen
Before July 1, 2011	You should have or will be receiving communications from Sterling Commerce, business as usual, and you should proceed to confirm your renewal by your current renewal date or by June 30, 2011 which ever is earlier, to ensure no disruptions in service. Please note all purchase orders addressed to Sterling Commerce must arrive to Sterling by June 30, 2011. All purchase orders sent after June 30, 2011 must be addressed to IBM with agreement to be invoiced by IBM with IBM terms and conditions. Please note that all outstanding quotes expire on June 30, 2011 unless stated otherwise in the quote. Contact your IBM and Sterling Commerce representatives if you have questions.

Renewal date	What will happen
During July , August and September 2011	Sterling Commerce will send you a quote in advance before Transfer of Business, earlier than you might be accustomed to for a smooth transition into IBM and ensure no disruption to your services. Your contract terms will not be changed and payment terms will remain the same to be paid before your coverage period ends. If you are paying by purchase order, please send it before June 30th. Otherwise please consider that all purchase orders sent after June 30th, 2011 must be addressed to IBM at the address found on your most recent quote, with agreement to be invoiced by IBM with IBM terms and conditions. Please Contact your IBM and Sterling Commerce representatives for more information.
After September 30 2011	Your Software Subscription and Support Renewal quote will be generated from IBM systems and provided to you by your renewal representative. This quote will be subject to standard IBM terms and conditions, and the renewal end date will move out to the last day of the month. Any customer that wishes to renew early is welcome to by contacting your Sterling Commerce representative.

In the future, Software Subscription and Support renewals will transition to IBM's Passport Advantage program. At that time, you will receive a notice to renew your Sterling Commerce Software Subscription and Support Renewal under IBM Passport Advantage for your IBM Sterling Commerce product. Notices will be generated from IBM systems and provided to you by your Software Subscription and Support Renewal representative.

Professional Services and Education

Sterling Commerce Professional Services and Education will continue to operate within the IBM Software Group.

Professional Services

Sterling Commerce Professional Services will continue to serve as your implementation and configuration partner with the same professional staff we have always deployed.

Changes in Professional Services as of July 1, 2011

Sterling Commerce will continue to operate within the IBM Software Group. IBM will assume any open Sterling Commerce Professional Services engagements and statements of work (SOW) and will perform as originally contracted.

All new services orders will be contracted using standard IBM services agreements, rate structure and SOWs. The IBM services agreements, SOWs, and service order systems are separate from the IBM software licensing contracts and order systems (e.g., Passport Advantage).

Professional Services will operate within the IBM Software Services Group.

Education

Changes in Education as of July 1, 2011

- IBM Sterling Commerce training, certification, training paths, course search and registration information are available at this site:
www.ibm.com/software/sw-training
- Sterling Commerce courses will continue to be delivered by Sterling Commerce authorized instructors.
- Prepaid training will be honored by IBM until its expiration date. Sterling Commerce discount programs will be migrated to IBM discount programs.
- Students enrolling in courses taking place prior to July 1, 2011, will mail to:
sterling_education@vnet.ibm.com to receive a course enrollment confirmation from Sterling Commerce systems. IBM will generate a similar course enrollment confirmation from IBM systems for courses offered after July 1, 2011.

No action is required from the student.

For further information or inquiries, please contact your Sterling Commerce training representative at: www.ibm.com/training/global.

Sterling Commerce Network Customers

We have been working diligently to continue the level of service you have come to expect during the transition of your Sterling Commerce Network relationship to IBM. As a result of the transition, there are several key changes that will impact the way you receive, view and remit payment with IBM for June service activity.

1. Source / Format: The invoice received in July for June activity and each month thereafter will be from IBM rather than Sterling Commerce. To that end the format will be consistent with the IBM layout moving forward.
2. Payment Method / Location: Any customer currently paying with a credit card will be moved to on account and will remit payment to the IBM location indicated on the invoice.

3. Payment Terms: Payment will be “Net Due Upon Receipt” rather than “Net 30 Days

Customers running Sterling Commerce products on IBM zSeries Platforms

Customers running Sterling Commerce products on IBM z/OS such as Connect:Direct should use the standard IBM purchasing channel, used to purchase their other IBM z/OS software products, to make additional purchases of the appropriately named IBM product – e.g. IBM® Sterling Connect:Direct® for z/OS®.
