

On Demand Consulting

Providing the right technical expertise at the right time

Highlights:

- Access to Information Management technical experts, best practices and methodology
- Flexible engagement model provides a cost effective alternative to full time onsite resources
- On Demand Consulting Premium option provides a deeper level of Solution Architecture expertise when you require it

Overview

On Demand Consulting provides you with an engagement model that allows you to augment your team on a variable, remote basis both during and after your solution implementation. This supports your self-sufficiency as it enables you to gain access to highly skilled Information Management experts on an as needed basis.

The Information Management Lab Services team has the deep technical knowledge, a proven methodology and the best practices required to support the initial delivery of your solution, version migration initiatives or specific point in time activities to support your post-production solution.

We also offer an On Demand Consulting Premium model to provide access on an as-required basis to our Solution Architects who will assist you with specific activities such as architectural planning and cross-product solution implementation.

Our experts leverage a proven engagement model which can reduce costs and time to delivery.

Our goal is to give you:

- Priority focus on time to value
- Rapid knowledge transfer to support their demand
- High quality deliverables

Your independence is our greatest success
