M02 VMware ESX Server Lab Part 2 of 2
by Peter Escue and Wayne Wigley

This lab will go over the latest version of VMware's ESX Server, and will familiarize students with installation, configuration, and administration of ESX. Students will install a VM, and then explore how to change the performance characteristics of the VM. Students will also perform some basic command line administration to configure ESX and to explore the file system.