e-business software

If you include IBM WebSphere® software in your Web sites, applications, software or hardware, then you can be confident that your e-business solution is scalable, reliable and manageable. WebSphere software is recognized throughout the industry as the adaptable, proven, award-winning middleware that powers successful e-businesses. By displaying the Powered by WebSphere™ mark, you're announcing that you're ready for serious e-business.

Use the Powered by WebSphere mark if:

- You want to increase confidence in your e-business by announcing that it's powered by industry-leading middleware.
- Your site or solution is currently using WebSphere infrastructure software to operate, develop, deploy or integrate a complete e-business solution.

Display the Powered by WebSphere mark on:

- Web sites created and maintained using WebSphere software
- Hardware or software integrating WebSphere software as part of its operations
- Marketing collateral — such as brochures and exhibits — for solutions that include WebSphere software

Recognized and respected: WebSphere software

- 300,000 WebSphere software downloads in 2001
- 10 consecutive quarters of double-digit growth as of September, 2001

Tell your customers you're ready for e-business with WebSphere software.
