

A storage problem just popped up.
The data was rerouted.
Notifications were sent.

And no one noticed
IT was at lunch.

Storage Area Network solutions you can count on.

When you avoid data problems, your company stays a step ahead. So you need a comprehensive solution to control, manage and exploit your SAN infrastructure. Allowing you to discover, allocate, monitor and automate SAN components and disk resources. With a scalable solution based on industry standards that provide integration and availability. And reduce management involvement at the same time. No small task. Tivoli® Storage Network Manager gives you the comprehensive SAN management solution you've been looking for – and more.
