Ordering IBM License Metric Tool

Antonio Gallotti
WW Technical Software License Manager - IBM Licensing

IBM

If you are a US Federal Government Client, contact your IBM Sales representative to order License Metric Tool.

Introductory information

License Metric Tool is free of charge. However, it needs to be ordered and be a part of the Passport Advantage site agreement. It establishes IBM entitlement record for the License Metric Tool license as well as software subscription and technical support (S&S)

- Each Passport Advantage (PA) site has a Customer Primary Contact point that owns and manages the site.

- Passport Advantage Online is the portal where Primary Contacts and Authorized Users can log in to self-manage their Passport Advantage.

- Visit the following page for "how-to" videos and information about Passport Advantage Online https://www.ibm.com/software/passportadvantage/pao_customer.html.

- Customer's IT members that are requested to deploy License Metric Tool must contact their PA Primary Contact to either order License Metric Tool or to download it when already available in the Passport Advantage site.

In case of questions or problems with ordering or downloading License Metric Tool, contact the Passport Advantage support. Do not open a case for the License Metric Tool Support.

License Metric Tool part numbers

License Metric Tool is provided with License and Software Subscription part numbers. The part number must be renewed so that you can be entitled to software subscription and technical support (S&S).

- License part number D561HLL - IBM License Metric Tool Per Establishment License + SW Subscription & Support 12 Months.

- Subscription and Support Renewal part number E027NLL - IBM License Metric Tool Per Establishment Annual SW Subscription & Support Renewal

- Per Establishment license means that you are permitted to deploy an unlimited number of copies of License Metric Tool only on machines owned or leased, that are located at a single physical site, including the surrounding campus and satellite offices, irrespective of the server environment being monitored.

Do I need to order License Metric Tool?

License Metric Tool is generally included in most of IBM Enterprise License Agreements with the related License and Software Subscription part numbers.

Primary Contacts of Passport Advantage can verify if License Metric Tool is already included in the list of IBM software of their Passport Advantage agreement.

- Verify if the License Part Number D561HLL and/or Subscription and Support Renewal Part Number E027NLL is a part of the IBM software included in your Passport Advantage agreement.

- If they are not a part of the agreement, you must order License Metric Tool.

- If you have the License Metric Tool license entitlement (part number: D561HLL), perform the Subscription and Support Renewal of License Metric Tool (part number: E027NLL) at the end of the license term to continue getting IBM Technical Support.

Log in to Passport Advantage and within your site, click Product catalogs.
