

THE NEW POWER™ EQUATION.

Close More Business with the New Power Equation!

There is no better time than now to increase your win ratio by having clients deploy your solutions on IBM Power™ Systems. It starts by getting the information and assistance you need to make your relationship with Power Systems a money maker in 2008 and beyond!

Come join us for interactive discussions with members of the Power team, led by Jeff Howard, IBM Director of Worldwide Power Systems Platform Marketing. And, leave with your Power Equation for success!

To find out how it can all add up for your business growth, contact Wesley Rivers at wariver@us.ibm.com to learn how to register for the half-day brainstorming session you can't afford to miss!
