

Microsoft IBM SOA In Action

Using Open Standards Interoperability

Come see how IBM and Microsoft interoperate in an SOA environment. We will showcase a “Day in the life of an SOA” from the perspective of business and IT stakeholders. IBM SOA tools and server middleware leverage open standards like Web Services and SOA to interoperate with Microsoft infrastructure. Using business-friendly and IT savvy tools, we will demo how to build and use an SOA solution across the SOA lifecycle [Model, Assemble, Deploy, Manage and Govern] using a combination of Java and Microsoft infrastructure.

IBM SOA solutions are being used in conjunction with Microsoft systems by companies world-wide to deliver business value. There are distinct entry points to SOA that enable you to “Start Simple and Grow Fast”. The SOA solution landscape ranges from your cell phone web browser, to Internet auction web sites like eBay, to the World’s largest Fortune 500 data centers, to executive dashboards that help business and IT stakeholders make just-In-time decisions.

At this “SOA In Action” seminar you will see “A day in the life” perspectives of SOA across the Model, Assemble, Deploy and Manage spectrum of business and IT solutions:
