

Media labels and their contents

This information lists the optical media that you receive with your IBM® i order.

Refer to the Customer Notices and information Web page (www.ibm.com/systems/support/planning/notices.html) for customer notices, installation information, and read me files related to IBM i and associated products.

Your media for installation needs to be arranged in the order that is listed.

Release identifier for i 7.1

Distribution media labels indicate the release and modification level in a format that is different from what appears on displays during installation.

Media type identifiers

Labels on the distribution media that are used for installation have unique identifiers. Media type identifiers are located on the center of the label. These identifiers help you determine when to use each media volume.

When you are ready to install your new software, arrange the media in this order:

1. Licensed Machine Code - I_BASE_01

This language independent Licensed Machine Code (Licensed Internal Code) supports all language versions. The Licensed Machine Code is part of the standard set of media.

2. Multiple language version media - B_GROUP*x_nm*

This media contains the multiple language versions of the operating system, IBM-supplied libraries, no charge options, no-charge licensed programs, and keyed products. For the media identifier string B_GROUP*x_nm*, x indicates the language group and nm indicates a sequence number. See “Feature codes for language version” on page 6 for a list of languages that are in each group.

3. F_MULTI_NLV

This media contains some additional programs, products, single licensed programs, or options.

4. N29*xx*_01 Secondary Language Media

This media contains only language objects for the indicated secondary language. For secondary language media, the value for 29*xx* is the feature code of the secondary language as used for installation.

Notes:

1. Keep all of your distribution media. You might need them for recovery procedures.
2. You might receive additional media volumes that do not conform to these descriptions. Examples include media that contain PRPQs or media for IBM i Access Family products that are installed on workstations. Also, IBM Business Partners might label the media differently.
3. Julian dates are shown in the form yddd. The y is the last digit of the year (0 through 9), and ddd is the day of the year (0 through 366). For example, the Julian date for 6 April 2016 would be shown as 6097 because 06 April is the 97th day of the year 2016.

Notes:

1. Refer to the Zend Customer Letter on the Customer Notices and information Web page (www.ibm.com/systems/support/planning/notices.html) for information about Zend Server Community Edition for i.
2. For IBM i customers, the Entitled Software Support (ESS) web site (www.ibm.com/servers/eserver/ess/OpenServlet.wss) is available for you to access, download, and manage your software programs. Please visit this web site, and under the IBM i Evaluation, Try & Buy and NLV download tab, you can find your trial use software for this product.
3. You might receive other media that contains a single licensed program or option and also has the volume ID of F_MULTI_NLV. The media label lists the licensed program or option contained on the media.

Feature codes for language version

Use this table to locate the appropriate IBM i feature code for your primary or secondary language.

Note: When you install the operating system, the system prompts for the primary language in the form 29xx. When you install the secondary language, you select a feature code, in the form 29xx, from a list of national language feature code identifiers.

For example, if you ordered French for your primary language and Arabic as your secondary language, you would specify 2928 as your primary language when installing the operating system and select 2954 from the list of feature codes when you install the secondary language.

Table 1. Feature codes for language version
